American Kennel Club Makes an Important Ruling, Which Will Bar Canadians.

New York, Dec. 25.—There was a luncheon and reception at the rooms of the American Kennel Club to celebrate the American Kennel Club to celebrate the twenty-first birthday of the national organization in the bench-show world. The rooms were decked in Christmas greens and Secretary Vredenburgh received the callers, aided by his staff.

Vice President Hunnewell had the chair at the quarterly meeting of the American Kennel Club held after the luncheon. Pifty-five clubs were represented. An important decision was arrived at concerning the definition of American-bred degs and the word American wherever it occurs in the A. K. C. rules. There has been a controversy on the point ever since the last quarterly meeting, particularly among those interested in Canadian dogs, consequent on the change in the beach-show classifiation making the novice class for American dogs only.

The ckiim was made that any dog raised on the continent is an American dog, and as some of the specialty clubs have permitted Canadian members to exhibit for their specials offered to American-bred dogs a proportion of the delegates tried to have the novice classes opened to Canadians as well, while all the delegates were anxious to make a final decision. There was a long and heated debate, the questions being threshed out most thoroughly.

On the vote the delegates decided that was a long and heated decoate, the quertions being threshed out most thoroughly.

On the vote the delegates decided that the word American wherever used by the A. K. C. shall mean a person "living in the United States or a citizen of the United States." The argument to sway the doublers was that the A. K. C. has only to follow the initiative of the United States Government, which entities its clite discounter representatives the American Ambassadors. It was also voted that Canadian dogs may not compete for special mixes at the bench shows except where the conditions state that the prizes are for American and Canadian dogs. This also applies to the produce stakes of the specialty clois in the future.

It was also voted that the produce of a blich bought in a foreign country and wheiped in the United States would be elicible to registration as American bred, if the purchaser is an American. A Canadian or foreign resident may not gain an American registration for the produce of such a bitch sent to the United States to whelp, the nationality of the breeder determining the right to such registration. The annual meeting and election of officers will be in February.

BEX HODDER WON THE STAKE.

Christmas Handleap Easy for the Winner of the Preliminary Derby.

New Orleans, La., Dec. 3.—Ben Hodder, who scored very handly in the preliminary Perby, won the Christmas Handleap at the Fair Grounds course, even more easily to-day. The stake was worth $1.550 to the winner, and the distance was one and one-sixteenth infle. Phil Pinch was always favorite in the betting, closing at 6 to 5, while iten Hodder, coupled with fit. Valentine, opened at twos and was backed to 8 to 5.

Twice during the game Washburn made the distance on quarter-back kicks. Washburn tried passing the ball directly from center to the man who was to carry it. This was to allow three of the four men back of the line to interfere for the man with the ball. But interference failed to make the required ten yards with any regularity.

This was to allow three of the four men back of the line to interfere for the main with the ball. But interference failed to make the required ten yards with any regularity.

Doctor John Outland, a former member of the Pennsylvania team, one of the All-American team for 189, was the referee. After the game he declared that the ten yard rule would open up the game, but that there would be no touchdown in a game between evenly matched teams. He favored requiring a team to make ten yards in four downs. He was of the opinyards in four downs. AMATEURS SCORED

Made Good Fight, Although Handicapped in the Last Half After Loss of a Man.

While the picked team of the Amateur Association Pootball League defeated the Benid, Ill., team at Kulage Park, yesterday afternoon, the real feature of the contest was the playing of the visitors in the second half, when, with only ten men in the line-up, they tallied three goals, the contest ending 4 to 3 in favor of the locals. The game was as interesting as has been played at Kulage Park this season. Both siden played their best, and many spectacular shots and plays were pulled off by both.

In the first half the Amateurs had clear-goals in this period to none by the Benid team. Clancy, the crack forward of the winning team, again distinguished himself and figured in the tallying of both goals. The fimateurs played a fast game and it appeared as though the visitors could not keep up the pace.

The backfield of the Kulage Park team put up a great defensive game in the first half and did not allow the opposition forwards to get within shooting distance of the goal. The forward line of the Benizh played well and often worked the sphere to the Amateur backs, but the latter booked nicely. O'Brien and Harris clearing on every shot in the first half. The latter covered a lot of territory and his kicking sent the ball from thirty to forty pards.

Near the close of the first half, Murray, the best forward of the Benizh team, sprained his ankle with the result that he was compelled to retire and have his team continue playing with only ten. In the second half the Benizh team showed its true form. With the great handicap of opposing eleven players with ten, they went in to win and almost accomplished their aim.

Faulkner, Harris and Campbell, of the forward line, did some fine dribbling and passing and soon scored, making the score 2 to 1. In the scrimmage in the Amateur goal, Peterson of the Amateurs, in attempting to clear the ball, allowed it to bound from his head into his own goal, tying the score for the visitors.

Graney's opinion, which involves the sitlation, is that as the thirteenth round had been completed by the ringing of the gong at the expiration of the three minutes fighting, and, as Fitzsimmons was still on his rest and able to continue, the battle did not end in the thirteenth round, Fitzsimmons collapsed after he had reached his corner. Fitzsimmons was not actually out until the minute rest between

The argument is advanced, however, by those who bet on the thirteenth round of the preceding round, the end came in
